Policy and Procedure for New Proposals to the Board

- A. The Board of Directors shall require that new business before the board follow the Policy and Procedure for New Proposals to the Board.
- B. Any Member, Director, Division Chair or other interested party may submit proposals to the ISDRA Board of Directors.
- C. All proposals shall be written and comply with the following procedure:
1. Proposals to be considered at the Annual meeting will be delivered to the Executive Director's office no later than February 1st of that year. Other proposals may be submitted at any time and will be reviewed as per Section D.
 2. Proposals shall contain, but not be limited to, the following information:
 - a. A descriptive title.
 - b. A brief summary of the proposal.
 - c. Background information pertaining to the proposal, it's intended scope, duration and area(s) of impact.
 - d. Financial information if moneys are involved. Financial information shall include sources and amounts of income and expenses.
 - e. A cost/benefit analysis of the activities proposed and outcome measurement if appropriate.
 3. The Executive Director shall, upon request, assist in the development and submission of complete proposals. Assistance shall be limited to editorial review and compliance with proposal requirements.
- D. Upon receipt of complete proposals, the Executive Director shall forward the titles of all proposals to Facebook for an official announcement on the ISDRA Facebook page.
1. The titles of all proposals shall be emailed twice within 60 days to all current members via MailChimp or other mass email format and will be followed by an additional thirty (30) day comment period, after which proposals shall be presented for consideration by the Board of Directors. Preceding the list of titles shall be the notice 'Proposals to be considered by the Board of Directors'.
 2. Following the list of titles shall be the following notice; 'Members may obtain a copy of the complete proposal upon request to the Executive Director'.
 3. Written comments received by the Executive Director shall be forwarded to the Board of Directors prior to the meeting of the board.

4. Only written comments which are delivered to the Executive Director's Office will be considered by the Board of Directors when determining the final outcome of the proposal.

E. As an emergency measure, the board may, upon the consent of the chairperson and 1/3 of board members present, entertain proposals not meeting the requirements of A. through D.

F. This policy and ensuing revisions shall be reviewed by the Board of Directors on an annual basis to determine appropriateness and need for revision. Revisions shall be drafted by the Executive Director at the direction of the Board.

G. This policy and all revisions shall be approved by the Board of Directors prior to enactment of the policy.
